

Peterborough Players:

Peterborough Players is a cultural treasure; a nationally recognized professional theatre in an unexpected setting -- a historic barn, 3 miles outside of downtown Peterborough, NH. Founded in 1933, the theatre offers a traditional summer season from June through September and a three-play winter season, augmented by opera and theatre on screen including The Met: Live in HD opera series and plays from London's National Theatre. <https://www.peterboroughplayers.org/>

ConVal Dollars for Scholars:

ConVal Community Dollars for Scholars (CVCDFs) awards scholarships to ConVal district students who may not have the opportunity to attend college due to personal challenges and financial issues. The organization gave $11,000 in scholarships to three deserving graduates in 2020. Since 2006, we have awarded $411,000 to almost 100 students! The people, the businesses, and the service clubs of the community have been extremely generous throughout the years, and we are pleased to be a part of Dan Petrone and Bean Group's non-for-profit donation program. This will help us turn the dream of a post-secondary education into a reality for students in our community. "Education is the most powerful weapon you can use to change the world." – Nelson Mandela (<http://www.conval.dollarsforscholars.org/>)

Monadnock Humane Society:

*Monadnock Humane Society is a private, nonprofit 501(c)3 socially conscious shelter organization that serves 44 communities of the Monadnock Region. Its mission is to strengthen the animal-human bond by promoting and providing for the well-being of animals. MHS receives no state or federal funding and is not affiliated with any other agency or organization such as HSUS or ASPCA. It is supported solely by the generosity of those in our community. The Cornucopia Project:

The Cornucopia Project is a 501c3 nonprofit organization located in the Monadnock Region of New Hampshire. Our mission is to plant seeds for a lifetime of healthy eating through garden, kitchen, and farm education. We strive for a resilient community that celebrates healthy food, hands-on learning and environmental sustainability. For 15 years, the Cornucopia Project has brought garden learning to students throughout southern New Hampshire. With sustainably grown produce at the heart of all we do, the Cornucopia Project addresses community health by educating about healthy eating in public and private schools, after school clubs and camps, and by providing organically grown produce to institutions, businesses and food pantries. We serve over 500 hundred youth and families every year.
